

and for waka. The harbour was the highway that linked the Hokianga communities.

and their late 1860s house, seen in an early photograph, is now a Heritage New Zealand property.

12 In 1898 troops responded to New Zealand's last challenge to Crown authority in Rāwene's Dog Tax Rebellion.

